VII. MAYOR, ASSEMBLY, AND STAFF COMMENTS

Ms. Dillon:

- reminded members of the Assembly to submit any budget amendments to her by May 11, 2004; and
- congratulated incoming Borough Clerk Michelle M. McGehee for officially receiving her Certified Municipal Clerk designation.

Mr. Duffy:

- provided members of the Assembly an update regarding coal bed methane regulation; and
- reported that the Alaska Railroad Corporation exemption has been eliminated.

Assemblymember Allen:

- thanked everyone for coming to speak; and
- noted his preference to have a level seating format for future public hearings on the budget,

Assemblymember Simpson:

- thanked the public for testifying; and
- commented that the Assembly has a difficult task before them when addressing the budget.

Assemblymember Bush:

- stated that he has changed his travel arrangements and will be in attendance for the May 13, 2004, Assembly meeting; and
- commented that he expects budget cuts to occur.

Assemblymember Vehrs queried Mr. Duffy regarding whether or not the appropriation to the city of Palmer for the ice arena project affected the Borough bond rating.

Mr. Duffy replied that the appropriation did not affect the bond rating as the appropriation was from the capital reserves.

Assemblymember Vehrs:

- thanked the public for testifying on the budget; and
- noted that the School District is not accountable to the Assembly.

Assemblymember Kvalheim:

- thanked everyone for attending the meeting; and
- also thanked everyone who has worked with the legislature regarding local funding.

Assemblymember Colver:

- spoke regarding the expectation of decreasing the potential mill levy; and
- noted his concerns regarding the solid waste enterprise fund and fees charged to borough residents.

Mayor Anderson:

- thanked the members of the public for their testimony;
- supported researching alternative revenue streams; and
- stated that the public hearing on the FY05 budget would continue on May 11, 2004.
